

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF WEST VIRGINIA
AT CHARLESTON

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

CRIMINAL ACTION NO. 2:10-00032

LES VAN BUMPUS

SUPERVISED RELEASE REVOCATION AND JUDGMENT ORDER
MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER

On April 18, 2018, the United States of America appeared by Monica D. Coleman, Assistant United States Attorney, and the defendant, Les Van Bumpus, appeared in person and by his counsel, L. Thompson Price, for a hearing on the petition seeking revocation of supervised release submitted by United States Probation Officer Patrick M. Fidler. The defendant commenced a 54-month term of supervised release in this action on June 2, 2015, as more fully set forth in the Revocation of Supervised Release and Judgment Order entered by the court on January 7, 2015.

The court heard the admissions of the defendant and the representations and argument of counsel.

For reasons noted on the record of this proceeding, which are ORDERED incorporated herein by reference, the court found that the defendant has violated the conditions of supervised release in the following respect: the defendant violated federal and state law, and the standard condition that he not possess a firearm, inasmuch as on November 19, 2016, the defendant was in possession of a firearm as a convicted felon, at which time he also fled from the police, all of which is more fully set forth in the first full paragraph on page two of the petition, the defendant having stipulated on the record of the hearing that the government possesses sufficient proof to prove the violations by a preponderance of the evidence; all as set forth on the record of the hearing and all as set forth in the petition on supervised release.

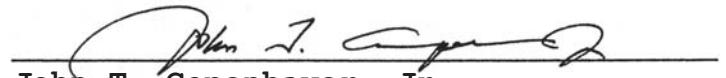

And the court finding, as more fully set forth on the record of the hearing, that the violation warrants revocation of supervised release and, further, that it would unduly depreciate the seriousness of the violation if supervised release were not revoked, it is ORDERED that the supervised release previously imposed upon the defendant in this action be, and it hereby is, revoked.

And the court having complied with the requirements of Rule 32(a)(1)(B) and (C) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, and finding, after considering the factors set forth in 18 U.S.C. § 3583(e), that the defendant should be confined to the extent set forth below, it is accordingly ORDERED that the defendant be, and he hereby is, committed to the custody of the United States Bureau of Prisons for imprisonment for a period of TEN (10) MONTHS, to be followed by a term of forty-four (44) months of supervised release upon the standard conditions of supervised release now in effect in this district as promulgated by the Administrative Office of the United States Courts (National Form AO 245B) and the standard conditions as set forth in Local Rule 32.3.

The defendant was remanded to the custody of the United States Marshal.

The Clerk is directed to forward copies of this written opinion and order to the defendant, all counsel of record, the United States Probation Department, and the United States Marshal.

DATED: April 18, 2018

John T. Copenhaver, Jr.
United States District Judge
